WILL ASK STATE TO AID SCHOOLS

Secondary Institutions Believe They Should Be on Plane of Grammar Grades.

PLAN IS TO SUBMIT BILL

Special Teachers' Committee Has Collected Statistics to Present To the Legislature.

The people of Utah will probably have e-submitted to them a proposition to give state aid to high schools. This matter was submitted by the last sesion of the legislature in the form of a onstitutional amendment which falled to pass. Teachers of the state are now organizing and raising money to present their case again to this legislature in a form which they hope will secure results.

To get the money for the fight, each district having a high school has been assessed $10 by the teachers' association. Statistics are being gathered by a special committee appointed at the recent convention of the Utah State Teacher's association, and these statistics are designed to show just what state of progress the movement for high state of progress the movement for high schools has now reached.

Letters have been sent to members of the legislature asking for their support for state-aided high schools, and D. H. Robisen, who has the work in charge, writes to the "News" that a number of piedges have been received. "The colleges and grades are receiving financial support," he writes, "and so far as we know there is no argument segings similar assistance to high far as we know there against similar assistance

TEACHERS' COMMITTEE.

The committee of the Teachers' association is composed of D. H. Robinson, A. L. Neff, L. E. Eggertsen, J. H. Walker and R. V. Larsen. The committee has reached the conclusion that it will ask the legislature to submit an amendment to section 7, article 13, of the constitution setting apart for high school purposes ½ mill on each dollar of valuation; second, it will urge pon the legislature the appropriation $100,000 to support the high schools for the next two years, or until a law in line with the proposed amendment shall have become operative.

The statistics which the committee is gathering include the total number of high schools in the state, the total enveloperatives are about the inverses in atsillment of each, the increase in atindance in 1908 over 1906 and 1907, ie teaching force employed, whether occial buildings are used for high thool purposes, and what resources rep up the maintenance at present. Letters asking these questions have been sent to all school principals. From the replies the data will be compiled ence and submitted to the legisla-

Alumni Association of Utah Formed At the Home of the Very Rev. Dean Brewster Last Night.

The Yale Alumni association of Utah was organized last evening in the study of Very Rev. Dean Benjamin Brewster of St. Mark's cathedral. The meet ing was called by the dean, who graduated with Dr. E. V. Silver from the academical department of Yale university in 1882. The occasion of the Il was a suggestion some time ago to e dean by Secy, Anson Phelps Stokes the university in a letter in which of the university in a letter in which he regreted there was no alumnt association between Denver and San Francisco, and urged the organization of an association for Utah with headquarters at Sait Lake. The dean was also the recipient of letters from Yalemen at Logan asking for membership in such association when it was started. The organization was effected last evening, with the election of Dean Brewster as president, Hon Elsworth Daggett, vice president, and Roger Sherman as secretary. Following are the Yale men in this state, many of whom were present last evening, and were en-
